Entering Bolivia's solar manufacturing sector offers significant opportunity. However, success depends on a clear-eyed assessment of all business variables, including the complexities of importation.

For planning purposes, this means that for every USD 100,000 of solar cells procured, approximately USD 26,434 must be budgeted for these two import taxes alone. The choice of solar cells is a fundamental decision that influences both the final product's efficiency and its overall cost structure.

This dashboard provides an overview on the latest Solar PV costs.

The average of the photovoltaic power potential (PVOUT) for Bolivia is approximately 1752.78 kWh/kWp yearly and 4.8 kWh/kWp daily. <sup>2</sup> According to official website average price for consumers was 0.05832 USD/kWh (excluding VAT) in July 2024. <sup>3</sup> The average cost of electricity in Bolivia for the year.

NREL analyzes the total costs associated with installing photovoltaic (PV) systems for residential rooftop, commercial rooftop, and utility-scale ground-mount systems. This work has grown to include cost models for solar-plus-storage systems. NREL's PV cost benchmarking work uses a bottom-up.
