

Cape verde has energy storage companies

Overview

Welcome to Cape Verde's energy transformation - where energy storage investment companies are rewriting the rules of sustainable power. With 30% renewable energy targets by 2026 [1] and major projects like the 26MW BESS initiative [1], this isn't your grandma's island getaway.

Can desalination and energy systems be used in Cape Verde?

Integrating desalination and energy systems like this could be highly beneficial. For example, on the island of São Vicente it could enable wind turbines to meet up to 84% of the island's electricity demand.

During the presentation of the project, Cape Verde's National Director for Industry, Trade and Energy, Rito Moreira, announced that the energy storage centre is scheduled to be operational by 2030, with the aim of injecting 7% of renewable energy into the national public grid and 18% into that of the island of Santiago.

Despite only launching its energy storage arm in 2015, as of 2023 the company had an output of 14.7GWh in battery energy storage systems. Its portfolio includes storage products like the Powerwall and the Megapack.

What is the energy sector in Cape Verde?

Cape Verde energy sector is strongly characterized by consumption of fossil fuels (derived oil-primary imported oil), biomass (wood) and use of renewable energy particularly wind and solar power.
