

Household energy storage project financing options in Libya 2026

Overview

How will the European Union support Libya's energy transition and climate resilience?

With a firm commitment to supporting Libya's energy transition and climate resilience efforts, the European Union has allocated funding to GIZ and UNDP to implement transformative projects to enhance Libya's capacity in renewable energy and energy efficiency and mitigate and adapt to climate change.

Does project finance apply to energy storage projects?

The general principles of project finance that apply to the financing of solar and wind projects also apply to energy storage projects. Since the majority of solar projects currently under construction include a storage system, lenders in the project finance markets are willing to finance the construction and cashflows of an energy storage project.

How big will energy storage capacity be in 2022?

An estimated 387 gigawatts (GW) (or 1,143 gigawatt hours (GWh)) of new energy storage capacity is expected to be added globally from 2022 to 2030, which would result in the size of global energy storage capacity increasing by 15 times compared to the end of 2021.

Will a tax credit be available for energy storage projects?

However, with the passage of the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022, tax credits are now available for standalone energy storage systems, and thus lenders may be willing to provide bridge capital that is underwritten based on the receipt of proceeds from an anticipated tax equity investment, similar to renewable energy projects.

Why is UNDP partnering with Libya?

UNDP Libya Resident Representative a.i., Dr. Christopher Laker, stated, "This pivotal partnership arrives at a critical juncture for Libya, as urgent action is needed to mitigate the extensive impacts of climate change.
