

Residential ESS project financing options in Finland 2025

Overview

Why did the Finnish real estate market rebound in 2025?

The rebound in growth in 2025 is supported by two key factors, cyclical industry recovery and infrastructure investment, especially in the artificial intelligence led data centre investment. The Finnish real estate investment market bottomed out in 2024, with total investment reaching €2.46 billion, up 8% year-over-year.

What is the outlook for Finland's residential property market in 2025?

The outlook for Finland's residential property market is cautiously optimistic. KVKL projects a 6-9% increase in the number of transactions in 2025. Veera Holappa, Senior Economist at the PTT attributes this anticipated recovery to improving macroeconomic conditions and monetary policy.

How did the Finnish real estate market perform in 2024?

The Finnish real estate investment market bottomed out in 2024, with total investment reaching €2.46 billion, up 8% year-over-year. Industrial and logistics was the largest sector with 27% of total investment followed by residential (22%) and social infrastructure (22%) in 2024. Yields stabilized and the gap between buyers and sellers narrowed.

Is the Finnish professional real estate market heading towards better times?

“The Finnish professional real estate market is heading toward better times. Domestic pension companies now have new opportunities to leverage debt in their real estate investments, which strengthens the conditions for both market growth and stability.

Will Finnish housing prices increase in 2025?

The Finnish Real Estate Association (SKVL) supports this view, anticipating the prices for second-hand apartments to increase marginally by 1-3% throughout 2025. Since the early 2000s, Finnish first-time home buyers have largely experienced a steady increase in housing prices, with only occasional short-lived declines.

What happened to housing demand in Finland in 2024?

Housing demand in Finland remained muted in 2024, with transaction volumes largely unchanged from the previous year. According to data from the Federation of Finnish Real Estate Agencies (KVKL), a total of 52,404 residential property transactions were recorded nationwide, reflecting a marginal year-on-year increase of 0.98%.
