

School solar storage tender price in Brazil 2030

Overview

The auction will enhance Brazil's power grid reliability by integrating energy storage solutions for electricity generated from renewable sources such as wind and solar.

The auction will enhance Brazil's power grid reliability by integrating energy storage solutions for electricity generated from renewable sources such as wind and solar.

The auction will offer ten-year contracts from July 2029. The auction aims to boost Brazil's grid reliability by integrating energy storage for wind and solar power. Credit: r.classen/Shutterstock. Brazil is set to conduct its first auction for adding batteries and storage systems to the national.

A study by Brazilian consultancy Greener has indicated that the country installed 269 MWh of energy storage capacity in 2024, growth of 29% from 2023. Demand for battery energy storage system (BESS) components grew 89% in Brazil from 2023 to 2024 and most of the resulting systems are likely to be.

With global battery prices having fallen 85% between 2010 and 2018 – and further since – Brazilian home, business, and industrial electricity users are considering energy storage systems increasingly attractive. Sophia Costa, head of new business at Holu Solar said market analysts expect Brazil's.
