Panama's national secretary of energy has launched its first bidding auction exclusively for renewables and energy storage. The bidding process – held by the national secretary of energy and state-owned electricity transmission company, Empresa de Transmisión Eléctrica SA (ETESA) – is seeking 500MW.

Last March, a 14-hour blackout in Chiriquí Province cost manufacturers $3.7 million. Traditional hydropower (accounting for 30% of supply) struggles during dry seasons, while wind patterns shift unpredictably. Lithium batteries offer millisecond-level response times to balance these fluctuations -.

Central American nation Panama has recently announced its first-ever renewable energy and energy storage bidding auctions to meet the growing demand for electricity and enhance grid reliability in the country. The country's National Secretary of Energy and the state-owned power transmission company.

Maybe you're a project developer scrambling to lock in energy storage battery tender prices for 2025 before budgets tighten. Or perhaps you're an engineer wondering if lithium-ion will still rule the roost. Either way, this blog serves up fresh data, actionable insights, and a dash of humor to keep.
